May 22, 2013

Dear Students,

Congratulations! I am honored and thrilled to offer the Brady Campaign's official recognition of your achievement in the 25th annual Global Harmony Through Personal Excellence "Celebration of Youth" essay writing contest.

You earned this accolade by bringing your best insights to the essay topic and working hard to express yourself eloquently. Your writing shines a light for all of us to see and gives hope to others to tell their stories.

In peace,
